

Begin at Home

Help your child develop positive attitudes about the differences in people. Start by comparing differences between you and them. Looking into a mirror together is a lovely way to start.

Books To Introduce Differences

There are many children's books that introduce the topic in lovely ways!

